Finals In Narberth Tennis Tournament September 9th

Lane and Fretz to Battle For Singles Honors

Adverse weather conditions again interfered with the progress of the Tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association as a result of which the finals, which were scheduled for Labor Day, will be played this week end, the singles Saturday; the doubles Sunday. The Fretz boys crossed racquets on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 11, in the semi-finals, when they staged a five set battle to decide which should enter the final round and contend against Harold Lane, one of the Main Line's choicest players, who had the previous day won his way into the final round by defeating the veteran Bill Kirkpatrick. Dashing Bob Fretz triumphed over his brother Frank after five hard sets. Frank won two out of the first 3 sets played, and the sparrows on the side lines looked for him to carry off the match, but in the fourth set his game slowed up perceptibly and he lost the fourth and fifth sets and the match. It is unfortunate that young players like Frank Fretz with fast hard strokes, play so cautiously in important matches, thus giving the advantage to their opponents. Had Frank continued in the fourth and fifth sets to put into his forehand drive the same speed exhibited by him during the earlier sets he surely would have entered the final round.

The finals were to be played Monday afternoon, but the usual holiday rain started just too soon, hence the postponement. However an attraction, not on the program, but of unusual interest, completely occupied all the members and their friends. John Odell held a dog show at the General Wayne Inn and several of the club members entered their choice canines. Strange to say they actually won prizes. Frank Fretz entered a wild looking animal that he called a dog. The judges were so alarmed that they gave Frank two ribbons as an inducement to him to go home and take his dog with him. Bill Davies, cricketer, tennis player, et al., trotted out a strange little pup. After one look at it the judges awarded Bill a black ribbon, together with a bottle of Black Flag. Big Bill Boryer exhibited his goat, but that was by no means an unusual sight. Jess Harris who had never been to a dog show before looked admiringly at his feet and wondered if his elbows would stand a chance of winning a prize.

RETURNING HOME

The numerous members of the younger set who have enjoyed vacations in various parts of the country have returned and will have several enjoyable reunions before the call of their various schools and colleges again separate their number. Among those who have returned are: Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick from Ocean City, Miss Dorothy Bottoms from Wildwood, Patsy Martin from New York, Lois Smith from Pittsburgh, Elizabeth Jones from Beach Haven, Verna Malby from Easton and Ella Dothard from camp in the Poconos. Following in their trail, come Dick Odiorne from Ocean City, Ellsworth Riley from New York, Don Hoffman from Maine, Don Murphy from Chicago, Horace Wanamaker from Ocean City and Gerald Sperry from Wildwood.

U. S. CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

An open competitive examination for the position of Clerk-Carrier in the Narberth Post Office will be held on Sept. 16th, 1922, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M.

All persons wishing to take this examination should secure blanks at the Narberth Post Office.

Fred C. Patten, Postmaster.

New Building For School Assured

Community Co-operation A Necessary Factor

Nothing more welcome could come to most of us than the assurance that Narberth will soon have a new school building. Yet such is actually the case. Too often has it been said lately that "If Narberth only had adequate school facilities, it would be an ideal suburb." And the criticism has not been without a good deal of foundation in fact.

Our schools have been too crowded. There are many families, known to us all, who realize that only too well from personal experience. Hours have had to be lengthened and double sessions started with the result that late in the long, dark winter afternoons mothers have wearily waited for children that should have been home hours before. It has been no one's fault; simply the inevitable result of a normal, healthy growth of our town, a growth so fast that the schools could not keep pace with it.

Soon, however, this difficulty will be overcome and there will be added to the present school system a fine new building, modern in every detail and sufficiently large to meet all reasonable demands.

Yes, Narberth will soon have a new school building! But, like all things that are worth while, it will come only after an effort on the part of every individual in Narberth. Isn't that fair?

There may be those who view the school problem as one pertaining only to those who happen to have children that must be educated. Fortunately, there are probably few such in Narberth. Certainly the man who has lived here long enough to call Narberth "home" has by this time come to realize the responsibilities which "home" implies. And of them all there is none greater than the maintenance of adequate and modern schools.

Therefore this new building of ours is a community affair in which every man, woman and child will have a share of the interest and for which every one, from the little tot who must attend to the hardened old bachelor—if such exist among us—should pledge his hearty cooperation.

Detail plans of the new building and its uses will appear later in "Our Town." In the meantime let it be remembered that one thing, above all others, has kept Narberth from being one of the foremost suburbs along the Main Line: its lack of adequate housing facilities for the school. Shall we let it go at that and drag along as best we can? Or will we function as a live, wide-awake community with energy and foresight enough to take active leadership in necessary civic betterment? The answer must be as it has been before to somewhat similar questions.

TALENTED YOUNG MUSICIAN ENGAGED

The engagement was announced on Wednesday of Miss Ebba Ruth Sjöholm daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sjöholm of 211 Iona Ave., and Mr. Harold M. Griest, of Philipsburg, Pa.

Many of the readers of "Our Town" are familiar with Miss Sjöholm's playing, as she has always been most generous in contributing to our various programs.

While we shall regret losing her, we wish her all kinds of luck in her new career.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Membership Open In Choral Society

Application Can Be Made For New Season

The following letter was sent recently to every home in the borough: Narberth, Pa., September 6, 1922.

Dear Friend:

The Narberth Choral Society is an organization of, by and for the people of Narberth. It is one of the community's live assets. Its publicity and concerts both local and in other localities have widely spread the name and fame of our active suburb. You, no doubt, are aware of the phenomenal growth of this organization, having been organized in February, 1921, and since that time it has given six local concerts and also concerts on the Steel Pier, Atlantic City, Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, and in June last, sang a very successful outdoor program on the Devon Horse Show grounds, Bryn Mawr.

The Board of Directors of the Choral Society are planning a very active season, and aside from the local concerts, are negotiating for several big outside engagements.

Not satisfied with resting upon laurels won in the past, we are planning this season to make the Narberth Choral a bigger and better organization, and we have, therefore, opened our Active Membership for the next two weeks. Qualifications for Membership include the possession of a fair or promising voice and the knowledge of the rudiments of music.

Dues, $2.00 per season, (September to September.)

Each member pays for his music (which he retains.)

Fines 25 cents for each absence from regular rehearsal.

Applicants accepted by September 18 may vote at election of officers that night.

The Choral Society reserves the right to withhold any or all applications until such a time as the tone balance would warrant the augmenting of certain parts.

Rehearsals are held on Monday evenings, at 8 P. M. sharp in the Y. M. C. A. building.

If you are interested in Active Membership, applications should be made as soon as possible to Mr. F. R. Mitchell (1274 M), or direct to Prof. Clarence C. Nice (1608.)

WHO SAID "THEY DON'T COME BACK"

The Elm Terrace Married Men's Defense League again got into action on the baseball diamond Labor Day morning with a Father and Son game.

Pop Litchfield was missed both for his comedy and excellent playing, though his son furnished the first. The Sons were unable to believe that nine innings could pass so quickly with their side going out in one-two-three order. Their two pitchers Pete Vocum and Don Heckel did well, but not as good as Dad Heckel for the Fathers. Leach, Knowlton, Ross and Douglass starred on the infield and Bowman caught. Wolf in the outfield assisted by Russell Sharpe and Masot Richard Heckel made an outfield that was as good as the Narberth team. The Boys had McAniff for catcher, Pete and Don for first and pitcher, Ross and Litchfield for the other bases and Croll for short. Smith, Ed Wolf and Charles Ross were the outfielders. The boys only succeeded in getting four runs, but the Doo Dadds piled up ten and the umpire, Mr. Peany, was not favoring either side. The rooters just had all they could do boosting, and Mrs. Douglass kept the score.

Memorial Day the boys won, but July Fourth and Labor Day they were taken into camp without a question. This proves sometimes THEY DO COME BACK.

The Baseball Reporter.

Narberth Close To Top of Main Line League

Three Victories In Week-End Games

Narberth moved up to second place, with a half a game of Ardmore, leader of the Main Line League, by their string of three victories over the week-end. On Saturday, Strafford was walked over to the tune of 17-5. On Labor Day, the scores were Narberth 3, Berwyn 1 in the morning, and Narberth 3, Wayne 2 in the afternoon. Ardmore still has two postponed games to play. Should she lose these, Narberth would play off the tie for the second half championship.

Today Narberth plays Glenside at Sullivan Field. The game will be called at 3:00 P. M. The visitors have not been defeated in two years, and the game promises to be an interesting one.

It is planned to end the season in a way befitting the excellent results which have been obtained this year. Last week, due to a misunderstanding, the article on the baseball situation was received by the editor too late for publication. In order that the subject might be included, however, it was decided to have the article printed on separate sheets of paper and inserted with the copies of "Our Town." This article showed that most pleasing results had been obtained this season, in both a financial and athletic way, and gave a hint of the other activities to be undertaken before the season closes.

Interesting Plans

Financially, the team is now about even. The admissions paid at the games have about balanced the general maintenance costs of the different games, and contributions from other sources have aided in the work of establishing the field.

The fans, however, have been asking for some really high-class attractions for the twilight games—some of the teams which have been written up so often in the city papers. The expense of securing such teams is considerable. There is as much competition in baseball as in other lines, and talent demands its price. Several of these well known teams have been booked, and arrangements are being made for the open dates. Among the teams scheduled to play Narberth is the Glenside American Legion, champions of Montgomery County, and undefeated for two years, who play at Narberth this afternoon. Others are Colonial, U. S. Marines, and probably Hildale. The guarantee to several of these teams amounts to $100.00 or more per game.

The Banquet

On September 25th a banquet will be given to the players. The event will be held at General Wayne Inn, and John T. Odell, the proprietor, has promised to outdo himself. The banquet, given by the citizens in appreciation of the fine work of the team this season, will be open to all citizens of the Borough. The public is not only invited, but is expected to attend.

Very notable people in the athletic world are expected to be present. A suitable souvenir of the season's work will be presented to each player. Tickets, including the dinner, will be $3.50 each, and a large number are expected to attend.

It has been estimated, that with all allowance for collections at the games, the booking of these splendid attractions, and the gala closing, will cause a deficit of about $500.00 in the funds of the ball club. The realization of this probable deficit has not deterred the officers in the making of plans, for the officers themselves have underwritten the amount, and will back the affair to the limit.

The assuming of this financial burden has been done with the full confidence that the regular fans and other loyal citizens will co-operate in bearing the cost of this enthusiastic ending of

A MISSTATEMENT

In last week's issue of "Our Town," the writer of the "Tower of Babbie," in poetically taking to task certain Narberth slow pokes, gave the impression that the maintenance of the Playground was guaranteed by Mr. Nash.

As stated in our previous issue, the maintenance of the Recreation Center was assured by the Playground Association, represented by Mr. Nash as its Secretary, and not by him as an individual.

This organization, of over 75 members, has backed the Playground movement with time and money ever since its inception. It is to hasten the time when the people may enjoy the Playground that the guarantee was given to Council.

To the Editor of "Our Town":

As "Our Town" was among those interested in the movement to erect a memorial to the service men of Narberth shortly after the World War, you may be able, through your columns, to enlighten others, who were also interested, as to what became of the project. Was there not a fund raised for that purpose among our citizens and if so what disposition was made of the money?

Interested.

MR. HARKNESS' RECITAL

An enthusiastic audience of Narberth music lovers greeted Mr. Robert Harkness, the brilliant pianist and composer of sacred songs at the Presbyterian Church, Tuesday evening. The Church was well filled. Mr. Harkness fulfilled his promise of writing the words and music to a new chorus, which he not only had the audience sing with him, but he persuaded a number of good singers present to render it as a solo, and two to give it as a duet. His improvising was brilliant, and he succeeded in making six different improvisations to one song alone.

Mr. Harkness told the story of how, much against his own will at first, he was "discovered" as an accompanist by the late Charles M. Alexander, the song leader, in a revival campaign in Bendigo, Australia. Mr. Harkness is thinking of leaving his home in Los Angeles, California, and settling in Philadelphia. The latch string on Narberth's door hangs on the outside, Mr. Harkness.

What do you think of the new fire siren? The try-out on Thursday, with a low current will give an idea of the persuasive voice it will issue when a full current of electricity is used.

MARJORIE

Underneath the lamp's bright glow
Little daughter Marjorie
Cries and nestles close by me
In my favorite armchair
Ever finds a welcome there.
She and I long journeys go
Out from beneath the lamp's bright glow

Often for a happy hour
After lessons all are said,
Waiting for the call to bed—
Stays by little sunbeam flower,
Hearing tales how wolves devour
Those who court danger, go
Far off from the lamp's bright glow.

Happy times indeed are these,
When fair daughter Marjorie
Much prefers to be with me,
Hearing of the woodland trees,
Listening to wild strange tales
Of uncharted hills and dales
Does not think or care to go
Ever from the lamp's bright glow.

Ah! 'Tis sad, but true alas,
Soon will cease this evening hour
Spent with my sweet sunbeam flower,
Childhood days too quickly pass,
And I realize full well
Fates far different than I tell,
Will be whispered soft and low
Underneath the lamp's bright glow.

Well, By George! It doesn't seem possible that School's started again. But it has all right. And we want to say right here that if our young hopeful continues to extol the varied charms of Miss Evelyn W. Worth, we'll be strongly tempted to shave off our whiskers, get the old knickerbockers out of euphor and join Sixth ourselves.

From the standpoint of journalistic ethics it has always been held the peak of poor form to criticize a co-contributor. This once, though, we sprawl by the wayside. After carefully reading of the "Inauspicious Start to the Narberth Tennis Tourney" so deftly related last week, we cross lances with the ambitious reporter who saw fit to term a certain Citizen's gilded gas-line rig, a brougham. "Taint no such thing. And what's more, anyone who fails so miserably in discerning the many points of differentiation between a brougham and a sedan could never go on our payroll as a Purchasing Agent. 'Twould be far too dangerous. We recall with pain, despatching to the village store once, a party who knew not the dissimilarity between a little yellow puppy and lemons.

Merchant Bergner's unparalleled publicity relative to The Holdsmore Hanger Holder pictures a garment hanging device that would have made us cheerfully divorce ourself from one dollar several years ago, before our wife married us and reformed us. In those days business required us to brave the midnight dangers of slowly revolving sidewalk, bristling with street lamps invariably set in twos. Upon regularly seeking home with great irregularity high 3 A. M. each morning, we ever found it an impossibility to connect our coats, our vests or yet our trousers with the backs of closet doors or the backs of anything else in fact. Substantially "them WUZ the good old times."

Titus Ursipius in his charming commentary "Cito Maturum, Cito Patrium," declares the greatest pleasure in the World may be found in doing a good deed by stealth and having it found out by accident. We do not altogether agree with the old Roman philosopher. One night last week while the Mrs. was visiting, we surreptitiously bore seventeen quart jars full of "preserves" down cellar and deposited them at the foot of the steps, to save her the trouble. We didn't say anything about it. Next morning she went down in a hurry for something or other and fell into 'em.

Finance
and Investment

Sooner or later, most of us have money to handle,—the savings of years, or the surplus funds of an estate or corporation.

The profitable use of such funds is far more a matter for study than the thousands of people who lose money seem to think.

The Drexel Method of teaching this subject is intensive and practical. The class is so limited in size as to insure constant individual attention to every student.

The Course is taught by a member of one of the most successful Investment firms in the city,—a man with fifteen years of active financial and teaching experience.

The Central Location at West Philadelphia Station, with the best of train and trolley service, is of special advantage to the woman student.

Baseball

the season's activities. The Club has asked for subscriptions in any amount, which, it is requested, may be left at the real estate office of Mr. R. J. Nash. The Narberth Ball Club has done much this year to give the citizens an excellent brand of clean, interesting, baseball. They have been loyally supported in their work, and it is fully expected that the activities planned for the remainder of the season will meet with an ever-increasing spirit of helpful loyalty.

Scores of the week-end games follow:

Narberth, 17; Strafford, 5

Saturday's game with Strafford was featured by heavy hitting, seventeen runs for the home boys and a casualty list of three.

In the second inning Gene Davis, Narberth's sterling first sacker, collided with a small boy, while chasing a foul and both went down for the count. Davis has an ugly cut over his eye and will be out for several games. In the fifth Strafford lost their left fielder who fell in the creek fielding George Fleck's three bagger.

Yowell and Heckel decorated their batting averages with home runs.

Jefferies and Yowell played a little game of tag with Strafford's infielders in the eighth before they were both put out.

Strafford ..... 0 0 2 0 0 0 2 0 1—5
Narberth ..... 3 0 3 4 2 0 1 4 x—17

Narberth, 3; Berwyn 1

Labor Day morning Narberth, accompanied by a small band of rooters, journeyed up the line to take the measure of Berwyn 3-1.

Dickie started off with a single in the fourth. Jefferies dropped one over the right fielder's head, but was held on second by ground rules. Yip Yowell cleaned up with another hit in the same place, took third on Burns' single and brought in the third tally on a passed ball.

Townsend's one handed catch in the fourth was a beauty and applauded by the fans of both sides. Dickie played a good game. He bunched all his chances well and made three of Narberth's eight hits.

Narberth, 3, Wayne, 2

In the afternoon Narberth entertained Wayne on the home grounds and tucked another scalp under their belts.

Wayne started with a run in the first and added another in the fourth, but in the seventh Mickey Burns went to first on four wide ones, Fleck singled and both scored on four wide ones, both scored on Powell's slam.

The winning run came in the eighth when Jeff walked, Yowell sacrificed and Townsend cracked out a double.

This victory puts Narberth in second place. Our boys have been playing splendid ball and deserve the loyal support of the whole town.

Wayne ..... 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—2

SCOUT NEWS

Scout meetings will resume on Monday evening, September 11th, at the shack. As our term expired in August a new registration will be required, so any boys 12 years of age wishing to join the troop can do so by attending this meeting. Meeting starts at 7.45 P. M., and closes at 8.45, giving every scout opportunity to get home by 9 o'clock P. M.

In next week's issue of "Our Town" the write up of the Camp Story will appear, as everybody is home now from their summer vacation.

Scout Master.

TWO DOLLARS AND THIRTY CENTS
WILL BUY A CHARGING TRAY

Last year we were distributing about forty books each week, and at that time a small paper box, stood on end, with a flap cut in front to disclose the tops of the cards, and with a weight in the bottom of it to prevent its tipping over, served as a charging tray. Outgrowing that we arrived at the great luxury of a wooden cart, the gift of one of the library's earliest patrons; the box itself used to hold the cards of the books already distributed, and the cover to hold the cards of the books being distributed during the current day. We are still in the process of growth, and again we find that we need new quarters for the 245 cards which represent the books now given out daily. The cards are packed so closely in the box that it is very difficult for the distributing librarian to run through the cards to find the one belonging to the incoming book. Only $2.30 would provide us with a tray accommodating 1,000 cards and thus serve us almost indefinitely.

$2.30 is the average price of a book and we dislike to use the small cart, one which we have for anything other than books, and we have thought that in some way ten people offering us twenty-five cents each, or five people fifty cents each, or even well, the charging tray would be a great convenience and we are hoping that some one interested in the library work for the community will see that the library has a tray.

MEMBERSHIP OPENS

If you do not sing, you may be interested in Associate or Sustaining Membership. These are non-voting. Dues for Associate Members are $5.00, which entitles you to six tickets a season to local concerts. Sustaining Membership dues are $10.00 to $25.00 per season which entitles you to as many tickets as you may desire for local concerts.

If you sing, avail yourself of this opportunity to join a live wire organization; if you do not sing encourage the useful work of the Choral Society by sending in your Associate or Sustaining Membership.

We shall work very hard to please you with attractive programs this season, and we should most heartily appreciate your interest and cooperation.

Very truly yours,
